

Chinese New Year

On Thursday afternoon, Tollgate Primary school were joined by some very special guest from Confucius Institute. Our guests were a team of performers from China who put on an amazing show to celebrate the Chinese new year. The children watched some brilliant displays of martial arts, and listened to some music played on traditional Chinese instruments. All the children had a wonderful time.

Calling all wild readers!

We want children to send us pictures of themselves reading in strange, weird and wild places. You could try reading standing on your head, climbing a tree, be on top of a climbing frame or even on your bike. We don't care where you are, as long as you are reading and stay safe! Pictures will go on display in our new wild reading display in the bungalow building.

Email your pictures to:
wildreading@tollgate.boleyntrust.org

The best picture will win a £20 book voucher.
The deadline for entries is Friday 1st March.

School Photos

On Tuesday 26th February 2019, Cliff Harris Photographers will be coming to Tollgate. Please make sure your child is in their full uniform on this day.

Year 1

From Monday 11th February 2019, year 1 will move from their regular lining up space in the playground.

They will now line up on the other side of the playground, next to the pirate ship.

This brings them closer to their class entrance.

Handwriting Award

The following children have been given a special reward for their consistently beautiful handwriting and always presenting work to a high standard.

Well done!
